2019 Advertising opportunities
with Isles of Scilly Travel

Welcome

We provide the transport to and from the Isles of Scilly. So far in 2018 we have welcomed over 209,000 passengers aboard Skybus, Island Helicopters and Scillonian III. Our audience are interested in finding out about services and products that will enhance their experience whilst visiting the Isles of Scilly.

'S Magazine' is our main publication and is a fantastic tool for those preparing to travel to the islands. Packed with handy guides and tips; together with inspiring lifestyle and entertainment content. Now in its fifth year 'S Magazine' continues its year on year success and offers a range of advertising options.

We also have several other unique opportunities available to promote your business. Our boarding cards offer a quirky way to get your message across and our digital screens are a great way to promote your business to a captive audience. We also have advertising spaces on our very popular Scillonian onboard WiFi and new for 2019 is our new online accommodation directory for properties on the islands and around our four departure points.
