(a) be on these conditions to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions (including any terms or conditions which the Passenger purports to apply); and

2.3. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of these conditions and the provisions of the Athens Convention or any other mandatory provisions which govern the Contract, the provision of the Athens Convention or mandatory provision shall prevail but only to the extent of such conflict. All the other provisions set out in these conditions shall continue to prevail to the extent permitted by law.

2.4. Passengers accept that these conditions apply to both themselves and all other persons on whose behalf a booking is made. If Passengers, or their agents, submit Booking Forms on behalf of other Passengers, they confirm that they have the necessary authority to make such bookings and enter a legally binding contract on the other Passenger's behalf. If Passengers fail to make the outbound journey pursuant to the day trip Booking Confirmation, the return journey will automatically be cancelled.

If Passengers do not return on the date specified on the Booking Confirmation, the Passenger may be required to pay the full fare for a new Booking Confirmation. For the avoidance of doubt, the fare for a new Booking Confirmation must be paid in advance of the new sailing date.

PASSENGER AMENDMENTS AND CANCELLATIONS

3.8. Unless a flexi ticket has been purchased, any changes including but not limited to, sailing dates, times and Passenger names may be changed by Passengers, subject to the payment of an amendment fee which will be subject to a minimum of £20 per Booking Confirmation. If other members of the Passenger's immediate family were travelling on the same booking, the Carrier may apply the same flexibility to their reservations as well. If more expensive sailings are selected than those originally booked, any difference in fare will be payable but no change fee will apply.

(b) that the mental or physical state of the Passenger, including effects caused by alcohol or drugs, is such as to involve any hazard or risk to themselves or to other Passengers, the Carrier's employees or property;

(c) that the conduct or attire of the Passenger towards the Carrier's employees, servants or agents (whether in person, via communications or social media); or towards other Passengers has caused,

If the Carrier is unable to meet such requirements, it will make all reasonable efforts to propose an acceptable alternative method of transport.

6.4. If a disabled person or person with reduced mobility is issued with a Booking Confirmation but is later refused Carriage pursuant to clause 5.2, that person, and any accompanying person referred to in clause 6.5 shall be offered the choice between:

(a) reimbursement within 7 days for the full cost of the Booking Confirmation, for the parts of the journey not made, and for the part or parts already made if the journey no longer serves any purpose in relation to the Passenger's original plan and, if relevant, a return service to the first point of departure, at the earliest opportunity or

In such case, the accompanying person may be carried free of charge provided that they notify the Carrier at the time of submitting a Booking Form and provide sufficient documentary evidence as is reasonably requested by the Carrier. Only one carer ticket is available per family or booking. Any person travelling free of charge pursuant to this clause shall not be entitled to reimbursement in accordance with clause 6.4 (a).

In the event that manual wheelchairs are not available, the Carrier may request that the Passenger accesses the Vessel on foot with the assistance of one of the Carrier's staff. Tidal conditions may influence the gradient of the gangway and access points to the Vessel. A Passenger with reduced mobility may be able to board the Vessel, but due to tidal changes, may not be able to disembark the Vessel or re-embark the Vessel for the return sailing. For the avoidance of doubt, electric wheelchairs or mobility scooters will be carried free of charge on the Vessel, at the owner's risk, and will be made available to the Passenger at the port of disembarkation.

No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

21.3. No variation of the Contract shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by an authorised representative of the parties.
